

“Beloved Father,”

Give me guidance and acceptance on a daily basis in all physical and spiritual matters. Allow me the strength and love of patience to accept all things I do not fully understand.

I ask that I be given spiritual discernment in developing my spiritual gifts so that they may be used only with love and wisdom in helping my brothers and sisters worldwide awakening from their dreams of illusion. Give me the courage to endure my physical plane doubts, concerns with my body, and my personal issues of power, money, and control. Allow me to be in the world to serve without being embroiled with the worldly issues of survival or to be caught up with the world on a glitter and illusionary level. Allow me to know my soul’s essence,

“ITS DESTINY,”

That I may be of service to mankind at the highest spiritual level.

I am gracefully trusting that all will be in “Universal Order.”
