

DIVINE HARMONICS

The soul's sphere of magnetic-creative influence

This opening onto your souls tonal sound magnetic gateway unto the, shall we say — the music of the spheres — is your souls divine harmonics. This will assist you in opening individual soul sound consciousness fields of light in which all souls learning light field education/evolution through the vibrational and energetic frequencies of color sound tone creative magnetics.

This cosmic interaction within the exchange of magnetic fields at higher octaves of individual soul light frequencies that is opening and functioning beyond your electromagnetic Earth field wavelength is being held in a magnetic soul separation of polarity.

Your soul within its creative process and magnetic influence in transcending, a limited light field spectrum of magnetic separation.

Thereby breaking the magnetic chains of the social magnetic consciousness of energy limitations thereby transcending beyond a soul separation. And on to your souls individual sphere of magnetic creative influence. This galactic light interaction of magnetic interplay of mind field consciousness on levels of pure light ray frequencies.

You the conscious personality and your Earth core worldly beliefs and mankind's projection and self created limitations of mind field entrapments manifesting limited projection of self created limitations of self created fears and control that are being held within the mind's consciousness field as frequency energy manifesting and creating a lower spectrum frequency of limited experience and unconscious magnetic patterns.

Yes right now, most of you are operating and functioning outside of yourself with an unconscious and conscious field of light window within your 3-dimensional reality here on planet earth. You and others are operating and functioning outside of yourself for the most part. And are creating and manifesting a limited energy experience due to mis-information of you operating and functioning outside of yourself.

Your human physical chemical body structure and central nervous system is interfacing within the exchange of energy frequencies with your soul's crystalline piezoelectric soul field of light. And is in a vibrational and magnetic emotional process of learning and experiencing this process of converting matter back into your souls light body crystalline field. This interaction is between you chemical and electrical forces.

This is a piezoelectric process which is attempting to blend magnetic-frequencies and the soul's individual tonal evolutionary soul field. To evolve beyond old limiting patterns of brain/mind/body limitations.

This process within your physical chemical body is your bodies fascia (skin, nerves, blood, cells, central nervous system) is functioning on a polarity field. this interaction is between chemical and electrical forces and is mirror a piezoelectric process of chemical and electrical interactions of exchanges evolutionary stage of physical and spiritual soul evolution.

Through your interactions within the exchange of energy brain projections are creating & recreating reaction and contraction of what you label energy issues of fear
F—Failed    E—Energy    A—Assimilated    R—Response/
Reaction. This is an automatic brain response/reaction/projection of magnetic patterns that are contained within your soul's light crystalline body field which surrounds your physical chemical body (which what you call your Aura) that is attempting to transform into your soul's light field body within a physical chemical body here on planet Earth.

Auto-response mind/brain projection creating a magnetic holding pattern within your physical chemical body and central nervous system. This electrical—chemical—reaction—response is holding lower field emotional magnetic energy issues of self limiting soul containments of feeling powerless and being powerless here on planet Earth and disallowing soul freedom to be fully embodied here on planet Earth.

Frequency Tonal sound Oscillation of Magnetic Frequencies that are held vibrationally, within your central nervous system and your souls energy body field - will and can alter time mind consciousness in the opening of an optical window allowing the aperture of consciousness to open and expand thereby allowing more light consciousness awareness to be revealed to you from your soul's light field.

This window of consciousness we speak of—within your time mind space of conscious awareness is regulated by the optical vortex center within the matrix polarity of separation within time's unconscious space window within your 3 dimensional reality of what you, the conscious personality perceive, that can processed within your central nervous system and physical chemical body vehicle.

Your consciousness of 3D is mirroring thought — brain projections of lower fields of creation inside or outside worldly events — past to future in real time space — Meaning - what you see and experience mirrors manifesting and creating within the time mind space window of consciousness awareness.

This awareness is regulated by your optical vortex within your brain centers. Within matrix polarity of magnetic separation within time space window of your 3 dimensional reality of what the conscious personality can perceive, believe and process within the central nervous biological system of your 3 dimensional body.

This harmonic frequency upgrading and opening on to higher evolutionary magnetics that we speak of, is full frequency access as well as a holographic alignment allowing full access of the soul's light to be activated within the soul's Earth physical chemical body vehicle.

This will allow magnetic integration of individual soul creative harmonics within the soul's physical chemical body vehicle as one unified field of light. Within it's creative field of magnetic influence. These souls that can integrate and carry these soul harmonics, will become beings of light and they will be known as whole light beings.

These whole light beings of light from the Galactic Councils of Golden Light, are here to oversee soul advancement, evolution reorganization, restructuring, and renewal and will be the planet Earth's and mankind's new soul assistants and guardians in a spiritual-guidance capacity.

They will assist planet Earth in becoming the Garden of Eden that God deemed it to be. A new era of full expression of truth of mind and heart and soul will be fully expressed without any soul limitations bringing soul unity of oneness to all.

Allowing God's children of light source, to live with beauty, grace, and abundance, and love in it's true and full expression here on planet Earth once again. Thereby allowing all souls freedom of all as-one, to experience patterns of wholeness and oneness.

May the Earth-quartz
be with you!
